Matt

TONE PROFILE

ENERGY Engaged

WARMTH Warm

PLAYFULNESS Playful

DIRECTNESS Inviting

FORMALITY Polished

This brand sounds warm and conversational — steady and engaged, warm and human — speaks like a trusted colleague. The writing style is polished and precise, gentle and inviting, and playful and expressive. Whether it's a social caption, an email, or a product description, the tone should feel consistent and recognizable as the same business every time. Your refined visual system gains warmth from how you sound — premium design with a human voice feels inviting instead of distant. Beauty and personal care readers want honesty about what a product does and what it contains — confidence without impossible promises.

VOICE GUARDRAILS

Do

Use contractions — "you're" not "you are"

Write like you're talking to one specific person, not a crowd

Use "you" often — speak directly to the reader, not at them

Let personality come through — wit is part of what makes this brand memorable

Avoid

Avoid miracle or instant-transformation claims. Steer clear of loaded phrasing such as: miracle, instant fix, toxic, injectable results, permanent.

Avoid corporate jargon and buzzwords

Don't be overly formal or stiff — that's not this brand

MESSAGING THEMES

CREDIBILITY — LEAD WITH WHAT MAKES THIS BRAND DISTINCT IN BEAUTY AND PERSONAL CARE.

- 01 Care — show the how behind the work, not just the result.
- 02 Customer transformation — return to: sleek hair
- 03 Personal expertise — the character that runs through every channel.

INDUSTRY VOCABULARY — LEAN ON TERMS YOUR AUDIENCE ALREADY TRUSTS: FORMULATED, RITUAL, GENTLE, SKIN, INGREDIENTS.

- 01 Steer around phrasing that reads off-brand or risky here: miracle, instant fix, toxic, injectable results, permanent.

SAMPLE PHRASES

"Here's what I've seen work with clients like you..."

"Let me walk you through this."

"The thing most people miss about [topic] is..."

"I work with [audience] who are ready to [outcome]."

"After years in this work, here's my honest take:"

"Book a call — let's figure out if this is the right fit."

"When we talk about formulated, we mean ritual — here's what that looks like for you."

"Ask about ritual and gentle; that's where we put our focus."

WRITING DO / AVOID

Do

Read every line out loud before publishing — if it sounds strange spoken, rewrite it

Keep paragraphs to 2–3 sentences max on any digital channel

End every piece of content with one clear next step, not three

Use the word "you" — write to one person, not an audience

Avoid

Don't open every post with "Excited to share..." — lead with the value instead

Avoid mixing formal and casual in the same sentence

Don't pad copy — cut anything that doesn't add meaning

Avoid "We are pleased to announce" — that's not this brand's voice
